

Show Reviews...

“Very popular - with gay and straight audiences alike... Comedy Camp has revived that informal, speakeasy atmosphere that made Alternative Comedy so edgy in the 80s. No wonder Comedy Camp has been such a big hit.”

The Guardian

“This intimate, straight-friendly gay club in the heart of Soho is one of the best nights out anywhere in town. The audiences are always up for a great evening, & resident host and promoter Simon Happily only books fabulous acts.”

Time Out/Comedy in Soho

“As always, Comedy Camp was a splendid, riotous two and a half hours of the best comedy money can buy - four terrific acts for less than the cost of a couple of drinks.”

QX International

“Comedian Simon Happily is pushing all the right buttons with Comedy Camp at Barcode: lesbian, gay and straight comedians, a similarly mixed audience, and a smart... Soho venue.”

Time Out/Gay

“If there’s one clubbing success story from the scene this year, it has to be the rise of Simon Happily’s COMEDY CAMP.”

Boyz

“A night high on laughs and comic calibre... The drinks were cheap, the comedy flowed and the atmosphere was warm and friendly. It was a pleasure to be a part of the audience, & clearly I’m not alone on feeling that, given the number of regulars who come week after week to enjoy this oasis of fab comedy. We’ll be back, without a doubt. 5 stars.”

Gaydar Nation/Rainbow Network